L. J. Bartman Elected Head Civil Service Association

LAC LA BICHE — The annual meeting of the Civil Service Association of Alberta, local branch No. 30, was held Thursday eve, Sept., 28 in the club room of the Provincial Building.

Highlight of the evening was the election of officers for the year 1961-62. Len Kolstad, president declared the chair vacant and J. William was the chairman for the elections. The following slate was elected: L. J. Bartman, president; Frank Lockwood, vice-president; Ronald Lloyd, secretary-treasurer.

Two delegates were also elected to represent the branch at the annual convention to be held this year in Calgary at the Palliser Hotel, Nov. 23 to 25. Ron Lloyd and Evan Ewanchuk were those chosen with Len Kolstad as alternative delegate.

Mr. Bartman reminded each branch to send in the name of its branch committee representative to the secretary.

The members also took the opportunity to bid farewell to the past-secretary, Herb Lenz, who is being transferred to Andrew. Mr. Lenz has been accountant in the treasury branch here for the past year. Mr. Bartman, on behalf of the civil service, presented Mr. Lenz with a pair of gloves and a travel alarm. All present joined in expressing good wishes to Mr. Lenz on his transfer. Lunch concluded the evening.

WI Library Moved To New Quarters

LAC LA BICHE — The WI Library has been moved to the school division warehouse building situated beside the lumber yard, due to the necessity of using the library room in the town hall for a temporary classroom.

Mrs. W. E. Coast, secretary of the Library Committee, reports that the books are now on the shelves and the Library will be open to schol children and adults Friday, Oct. 6 from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

The ladies in charge have worked endless hours moving the books from the library room and getting them sorted and set up in the present quarters.

This library, run entirely by volunteer help, could well be classed as a travelling library, due to having occupied so many temporary quarters. For some time however, it has been comfortably housed in the town hall, until the disastrous High School fire necessitated the present temporary change of site.

Lac La Bich Teachers Speak At Home & School Association Meet

LAC LA BICHE — The first meeting of the Home and School Association since the opening of school was held in the Elementary School Friday, Sept. 29, with a record attendance of 84.

After a short business meeting at which President, J. Booker presided, short talks were heard from Principal, F. W. McMillan; Assistant-principal, H. Senetza and the principal of the Elementary school, E. Makowachuk. Mr McMillan spoke of awards won by local scholars and the system under which such honors are obtainable. He mentioned that an awards night would be held later and suggested November 18 as a possible date for the annual event.

Mr. Senetza dealt more specifically with average marks of various High school grades, expressing satisfaction with the record of the school.

Mr. Makowachuk told of the bewilderment he had experienced when school opened, with hundreds of youngsters pushing and shoving their way into the school. He was pleased with the co-operation of the other teachers in bringing order out of chaos, and mentioned that he was a lover of discipline, order and good attendance.

Featured speaker of the evening was Mr. Torgenrud, newly-appointed superintendent of schools for the Lac la Biche division. In his address Mr. Torgenrud gave a short introduction of himself, saying that he originally came from Saskatchewan, then spent some years in southern Alberta and, for the past year, attended the U of A in order to secure his MA degree. He challenged the members to accept individual responsibility for the success of the Home and School organization and, with well chosen words, stressed some of the useful purposes which can be served by this organization when its efforts are channelled in the right direction.

After the meeting adjourned an informal get-acquainted time was enjoyed with whist, cribbage and other games, folowed by doughnuts and coffee.

Gas Escapes When Line Is Severed

LAC LA BICHE — The first instance of a break in the town's gas lines occurred last week when a service line to the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator was ripped up by a bulldozer which was doing some digging in the area. The pipe was completely severed and gas escaped at will until the manager of the system, Earl Christensen, was located and made emergency repairs.

The incident comes as a reminder to all that, although the town-owned system has been operated without any accidents, gas is nevertheless something which must be handled with due respect.

Lions Club Plans Amateur Program

LAC LA BICHE — Joe Melnyk, deputy district governor of district 37B, Chipman, addressed the local Lions Club at its recent meeting. Mr. Melnyk was accompanied by four members of the Chipman Lions Club.

Tentative plans were made to hold the annual amateur night, sponsored by the Lions Club, in November. Further announcements regarding this popular event will be announced at a later date.

A turkey bingo is also planned for a little later in the fall.

In a resume of activities during the summer months when the club was in recess, the welfare committee reported that eye glasses had been purchased for a needy school child.

Lions member Herb Lenz, who is being transferred to Andrew treasury branch, was presented with a desk set by the president, H. Senetza.

Ask Extension Family Allowances For Students Over 16

A plea for family allowances to continue for children after they reach the age of 16, but are continuing in school, was made at the nominating convention of the Athabasca Federal Liberal Association meeting in Lac la Biche. The 322 delegates passed seven resolutions with no discussion on any of them.

The resolutions committee, headed up by Andre Dechen, Moose Lake, included Alex Lakhart, Cold Lake; Mike Maccagno, Lac la Biche; J. L. Lagasse, St. Paul; and Dick Hall, Athabasca.

Here are the other resolutions.

Confidence In Liberal Policies

The Liberals of the Constituency of Athabasca renew their expression of confidence in the principles of Liberalism and their belief that a Liberal Government in Canada will restore an environment in which Canadians can work, save and invest with confidence and pledge themselves to co-operate in the election of a Liberal candidate under the leadership of the Honourable Lester B. Pearson. Liberal economic policies will lead to the following goals:

1. Full employment.
2. A flexible monetary policy as a direct Government responsibility.
3. An expansion of public services particularly in the Constituency of Athabasca.
4. The encouragement of secondary manufacturing industries to provide a more balanced economy in the Constituency of Athabasca, thereby assisting the primary producers in the area.
5. The development of better towns and farms by increasing assistance to rural housing.

Confidence In Mike Maccagno

The Liberals of the Federal Constituency of Athabasca wish to extend to Mike Maccagno of Lac la Biche their sincere congratulations upon his election as the only Liberal member in the Legislature of Alberta, and its appreciation of his work on behalf of all Liberals in the Province, as acting leader of the Party.

Agriculture

The Liberals of the Federal Constituency of Athabasca in Convention assembled at Lac la Biche, on Wednesday, the 27th day of September, 1961, restate their faith in agriculture as the backbone of the economy of Western Canada, but recognize the existance of a farm crisis. They have confidence that a Liberal Government, supported by a Liberal member in Athabasca, will enact measures to solve the grave economic difficulties faced by Western farmers, by promoting increases in the efficiency and productivity of our farms while solving the cost-price squeeze. The expansion of trade, the elimination of unemployment, the protection of the Crowsnest Pass freight rates, assistance to farmers by acreage paymentss and price supports as a matter of right and not as charity, will make possible the payment of full parity prices on the sale of agricultural products.

Resources Development

The Liberals of Athabasca, realizing that their Constituency encompasses some of the largest reserves of natural resources in the World, have confidence that a Liberal Government will expand the demand for mineral and forest wealth and fisheries, and promote research into better methods of exploration and processing, not necessarily by general legislation but rather by particular economic studies of industries and commodities, and by encouragement to individuals and firms engaging in such research.

Postal Services

This Convention of Athabasca Liberals urges the Government to increase the efficiency of the postal service and to consider the possibility of instituting a rural and urban mail delivery in those portions of the Constituency which are sufficiently heavily populated to warrant such service.

Provincial Affairs

The Liberals of Athabasca are happy at the announcement that a Provincial Convention of Alberta Liberals will be held soon to choose a leader in this Province, and wish to express their determination to restore Liberalism to its proper place in the public affairs of Alberta.

Confidence In Leader

This Convention of the Liberal party of the Athabasca Federal Constituency wishes to express its entire confidence in the leadership of the Honourable Lester B. (Mike) Pearson, and to compliment him on the statesman like manner in which he and his colleagues in Parliament have discharged their responsibilities to the people of Canada.

The delegates express to the Honourable Mr. Pearson their gratitude for attending this Convention, this being the first occasion upon which the National Leader of the Party has been present at a nominating convention in this Constituency.

Department Makes Inspection Of All Schools In Division

LAC LA BICHE — Since the disastrous fire which destroyed the Dr. Swift High School in June, fire prevention has been uppermost in the minds of the Lac la Biche school board. As a consequence, on request from the divisional board to the provincial fire inspector, Richard Ferguson of the Edmonton fire commission office, accompanied by S. J. Clarke, secretary-treasurer of the school division board, made an inspection this past week of all the schools in the division.

The lands and forests helicopter was even forced into use to reach the schools in the northern areas.

A complete and thorough check was made in 10 schools from Caslan on the south of Chard in the north, as well as the Indian Reserve school at Jan Vier, 120 air miles north of Lac la Biche.

As well as a routine check in each school, lectures on fire prevention and fire safety were given and greatly appreciated.

The division expressed its gratitude for these inspections and promised to implement the recommendations made by Mr. Ferguson.

The Lac la Biche School division, the first ever to request such a large scale inspection, is to be commended for its concern, especially with the winter months close at hand.

Since fire prevention week has been set for Oct. 8 to 14, this inspection was timely, although Mr. Ferguson states that every week should be fire prevention week. In reporting on fire prevention, Mr. Ferguson reports that home fires were on the increase this past year, pointing to the need for thorough home fire inspection and prevention.

THE Homemaker

By BERTHA M. McCUTCHEON

Large turkeys will be plentiful for this Thanksgiving. They will also be an economical buy. There will be smaller turkeys but these will cost a few cents more per pound. Many people prefer the stronger more distinctive flavour of the large birds. If you are one of these and the large bird is too much for the family have the butcher cut a half turkey. You can purchase just one half or both. The extra half can be kept frozen in the freezer for a later festive occasion.

B. McCutcheon

Today's turkey is characterized by plump, rounded breasts and meaty drumsticks. Along with changes in the turkey go changes in cooking techniques. Many homemakers in the old days used to add water to the roasting pan because they were never sure whether the turkey they bought was young and tender or not and moist heat was, and still is, used to tenderize tougher meats. Nowadays, grade A or B young turkeys are available and there is no problem, so dry roasting is preferred by most good cooks. The only time one need use moisture in roasting turkey is if it is advertised and sold as a "yearling" or "mature" turkey.

Modern methods of freezing turkeys have helped to make uniform quality more generally available. These birds also are a far cry from the old-fashioned "cold storage" birds of not so long ago. Cold storage turkeys were frozen slowly, they had only the head and feathers removed and, furthermore, they were not always held at a constant temperature so there was loss of quality and flavour. Today, the quick-frozen birds are processed rapidly to lock in all the good quality and flavour and stored at constant low temperatures, until ready to ship them to your favourite meat counter. This modern method of preparing turkeys is one reason we have such excellent birds available at Thanksgiving. All year long, turkey growers and processors all over Canada are doing everything possible to make the king of birds even more of a monarch to grace your feast days.

Even good turkey can be spoiled by improper coking and so the Poultry Products Institute of Canada has some basic reminders to pass on:

If turkey is undercooked, the meat tends to be rubbery; if overcooked, it is apt to be dry. Slow roasting at 325°F. is recommended. Use a shallow pan with a greased rack in it to allow heat to circulate evenly around the turkey.

Avoid frequent basting (and a consequent lowering of oven temperature from too frequent oven peeking) by rubbing bird thoroughly with soft fat (butter, liquid, or solid shortening). Cover with a thin fat-moistened cloth or with a tent of aluminum foil, tucked in at ends but left free at sides to allow circulation of heat. Baste only if cloth or bird show signs of drying.

A time table for cooking turkey will be found on page 6 of the Poultry Products Institute's "Cooking Canada's Turkey". This is a booklet of thirty-two pages crammed with all the information you need for cooking turkey or using left overs. This booklet is free for the asking from: Poultry Products Institute, Box 21, Station K, Toronto 1, Ontario or from this office.

Tree Grows Every 5 Secs. In Alberta

Got time for a short countdown? Five-Four-Three-Two-One. Add one tall tree. You see, a tree grows in Alberta every five seconds. That's a fact. A fully matured, ready to cut tree is added to Alberta's great forest resources twelve times every minute.

Of course even the foresters who live where the trees grow have never actually seen one of these 5-second wonders poke its head out of the ground and reach 80-year development while he counted to five. They don't see it because it doesn't happen quite that way.

But all the trees, everywhere in Alberta's rich forest lands arre adding a bit to themselves every second during the warmer months of the year. Even allowing for a shut-down of growth operations during cold weather, these millions of trees manage between them to add equivalent of one mature tree an average of twelve times a minute; and that is one tree in five seconds!

"It's a new way of looking at it, but that's how it works out," said Stuart Allen, forest management officer for Alberta West Newsprint Mills Ltd., when the question was put to him. He did his slide-rule work on the figures contained in the Alberta Department of Lands and Forests most recent forest inventory table.

That twelve trees a minute growth rate means Alberta can permit her forest industries—lumber, newsprint, pulp, and perhaps kraft and paperbox—to cut down a tree every five seconds, day and night, winter and summer, without reducing the forest.

GREEN ACRES

By Fred Strashok, District Agriculturist

Some good experimental work is being done at the Beaverlodge Experimental Farm. For example comparing hay plus straw for carrying beef cows during the winter as to straw plus grain.

Mr. A. Reddon, Livestock Specialist, reports that straw and grain brought the cows through winter in a much better condition and proved more economical. Both groups dropped 100% calf crops.

One thing that interested me about these experiments is that both groups received free access to a mineral mixture. The mineral mixture used was 60% bonemeal, 15% limestone and 25% cobalt-iodized salt. All experiments on livestock at the present time always do have feed mineral mixtures added. Many years ago it was proved that some minerals are lacking in the feed we supply our cattle.

Also it was interesting that a supplement of Vitamin A was fed these cows. Vitamin A is very essential for prevention of the loss of calves and especially when only oat straw and grain are being fed.

A Vitamin A requirement of 30,000 international units per animal per day is required if no green hay is being fed.

WATER REQUIREMENTS OF PLANTS FOR THE WINTER MONTHS

For those that are interested in growing shrubs, lawns and flowers, it would be interesting to note that water is of prime importance in wintering these plants successfully.

Instructions by P. D. McCulla, Horticultural Supervisor with the Alberta Department of Agriculture, are that peonies can be planted anywhere from September 1st to the end of the month. After planting thorough watering is very essential for good wintering.

Lawns too need water in order to winter successfully. Lawns also need a treatment of about 4 lbs. per 1,000 square feet of 27-14-0 fertilizer in the fall of the year.

Lilacs — if you want them to have good blossoms next year, need a good watering in the fall.

All other trees and shrubs are in the same category.

Good watering of perennial plants is a must for success. Maybe that's why naturally we get a lot of wet snow or rain in the fall before the soil freezes up. Nature has a way with all plants.

News From Other Alberta Districts

Citizen soldiers (militia) of Red China wear ordinary peasant garb for economy's sake. These are North China troops. More than 10,000 militiamen have banded together as anti-Peking guerrillas. Observers in Hong Kong are inclined to believe that Red China is hopelessly overrated as a war partner of the Kremlin. Apart from ideological differences between Moscow and Peking, it is believed in Hong Kong that the ailments confronting Red China have undermined its capability as an ally of the USSR in a fullscale war.

Elizabeth Poss, Thorhild Student, Awarded $500 Hotel Scholarship

THORHILD — Alberta Hotel Association scholarship in the Thorhild County was again awarded to a student in Thorhild School. Miss Elizabeth Poss, daughter of Mrs. John Poss and the late Mr. Poss of Thorhild district, won the $500 scholarship offered annually to Grade 12 students in top standing.

Announcement of the award came in a letter from the Alberta Hotel Association in Edmonton, and later a cheque arrived in care of Nick Antoniuk, manager of the Corona Hotel in Thorhild, for presentation to Miss Poss.

A runner-up for the award was another Thorhild School graduate, Miss Karen Wynnychuk.

Miss Poss, the youngest in the family of five, has entered university this year to take up education. She intends to major in mathematics and minor in English.

When asked whether she worked hard in school Miss Poss replied, "I always tried to get my homework done. I didn't feel right if homework was left undone". Miss Poss said that by sticking to that rule she didn't have to work too hard, and her weekends were free to help with farm work. Miss Poss was not only known to be good in her sttudies but in athletics as well, participating in all types of school sports.

Commenting about her achievement Principal M. Senych said, "I am certainly gratified to hear that Elizabeth has been awarded the hotelmen's scholarship. It is simply a case of being rewarded for hard and conscienticus work. Ever since I have known Elizabeth I have found her to be an extremely conscientious student, always putting her work above everything else. Elizabeth is a good example of a willing and conscientious student getting ahead. I hope that present students will use her as a model and endeavor to follow her footsteps."

In addition to hotelmen's scholarship, Miss Poss received a $100 Province of Alberta Queen Elizabeth scholarship.

ELIZABETH POSS, Thorhild, winner of the Alberta Hotel Association scholarship, was presented with the award by Nick Antoniuk, manager of the Corona Hotel in Thorhild.

Edward Dowhaniuk Wins Top Honors In Plot Competition

THORHILD—A local 4-H member, Edward Dowhaniuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Dowhaniuk of Thorhild district, recently won top honors in the senior section of the provincial plot competition. Edward, a grade 12 student in Thorhild school, has been a member in the Thorhild 4-H Field Crops Club for the past five years.

His plot consisted of a two-acre fertilizer trial plot which was divided into four one-half acre strips and needed into grain using different rate of a recommended fertilizer.

Another plot in the same district belonging to Wayne Lamble, and entered in the provincial competition representing the senior division, was eliminated due to the fact that it had to be harvested.

As a provincial winner Edward is to receive a silver tray from the department of agriculture and a gold wrist watch from the sponsoring organization.

Other provincial winners were Darryl Smith of Bow Island, who won the intermediate award, and Lloyd Ternoway of Smoky Lake won the junior rod row award.

Judging was done by S. Harbison of the junior activities branch, department of agriculture.

Lamont Library Receives Additions

New books added to the Lamont Municipal Library since June include the following: Augustus Saves A Ship, Le Grand; Sam and The Firefly, P. D. Eastman; Little Frightened Tiger, Golden Macdonald; Little Lost Lamb, Golden Macdonald; Captain Orkle's Treasure, Harriet Micocci; Wings, Wheels and Motors, Eliz. Clemons; The Big Jump, Benjamin Elkin; Sleepy Little Lion, Margaret Wise Brown; One Kitten Too Many, Bianca Bradbury; Little Old Truck, Jay Hyde Barnum.

Book report: "The Trail of the Broken Horseshoe," by Margaret Govan is the story of Betty Morgan and her American friend who go north to learn to ski in Muskoka. The story of the adventure which overtakes them when they are forced to shelter in a disused cottage during a storm will grip the teen-age reader as much as its realism as by its excitement.

Joan Graham Wins Memorial Trophy

The Malcolmson Memorial Trophy awarded annually for outstanding achievement in radiography, has been awarded to Miss Joan Graham, a graduate nurse and x-ray technician who is chairman of the education committee of x-ray technicians in Edmonton. Miss Graham accepted the trophy from Mr. Clifford Godwin, last year's winner, at the September monthly meeting of the Edmonton branch of the Canadian Society of Radiological Technicians.

The trophy, in its second year of presentation, is given in memory of the late Dr. George Malcolmson, pioneer radiologist in Edmonton, and his son, Dr. Pat Malcolmson. Both were radiologists at the Royal Alexandra Hospital.

Resurgence Of Liberal Party In Canada Evident --- R. Hall

"I see a resurgence of the Liberal party in Canada here," said Richard Hall of Athabasca, who contested the nomination for a federal candidate in the Athabasca riding at Lac la Biche Sept. 27. "The last Liberal stronghold was here under Joe Dechene and at the next election we will be represented again by a Liberal government."

Mr. Hall said the Tories had been helping the Liberals be assured of victory in the next election because of their unsatisfactory administration of Canadian affairs.

He likened the PCs to a meteor which burns brightly across the sky —and then burns out. This is the way the Diefenbaker administration will go, he said—just as the Bennett government did.

The Liberal party is always adapting to new conditions, said Mr. Hall. Our party will meet the challenge of this scientific age with its hopes and threats . . . we will turn chaos into benefits for all mankind.

The Liberal party is willing to try something new, added Mr. Hall, but we still hold to the philosophy that to have prosperity in any country we must have "freer" trade than one who hides behind tariffs.

We must be free from insecurity, illness, disease, depression, fear of old age. The Liberal party would take action on these things and work for roads to resources. He said "we could have had a good chance to get that north railroad in this constituency if we had had a Liberal representative in this constituency, he concluded.

NEW SPORT

Water skiing and aqua planing are comparatively new sports for most people in Alberta. The wise person whether a beginner or an expert wears a life jacket whenever he puts on skiies. A quick jar or turn can upset or daze a skier, this moment of confusion could lead to tragedy. A life jacket does not interfere with the sport and does give protection against the unexpected.

MIKE MACCAGNO, acting leader of the Alberta Liberal party, and only Liberal member in the provincial legislature, was re-elected mayor of Lac la Biche Sept. 27. On the same day, he and Mrs. Maccagno entertained Liberal leader Mike Pearson at their Beaver Lake home, along with press and television representatives from Edmonton and other parts of Canada.

Low Flying Jet Training Over Cold Lake Area

Air Force authorities have announced that low flying jet aircraft missions will be flown on a day-to day basis over large areas of Northern Saskatchewan and Alberta.

The area involved is approximately 250 miles in radius centred on RCAF Station Cold Lake and is bounded by Prince Alberta, Saskatoon, Wainwright, Beaverhill Lake, Lesser Slave Lake, Athabasca Lake and Lac La Ronge.

Mission routes are planned to avoid all built up and sensitive areas. Unfortunately with this type of exercise, all farms and much smaller installations cannot be avoided but every attempt will be made to do so.

It is emphasized that these low level flights are of the utmost importance in the training of pilots for operational duties within the framework of the NATO alliance.

It is hoped that public citizens of the areas being overflown on these missions will accept any inconvenience that may be caused due to noise or proximity of low flying aircraft.

Vivian Ulliac And Dorien Aubee Exchange Vows At St. Phillippe

Late summer flowers decorated the altar of St. Phillippe Roman Catholic Church for the wedding of Miss Vivian Ulliac and Mr. Dorien Raymond Aubee.

The bride is the second eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ulliac and the groom is the second eldest son of Mrs. Charles Parent and the late Mr. Leo Aubee.

The bride was given in marriage by her father at the ceremony conducted by Rev. Fr. A. Noel.

For her wedding the bride chose a Princess style floor-length gown of chiffon organza over net and satin which featured a plain skirt decorated with French lace flowers and with a big bow at the back. The bodice was of embroidered lace, fashioned with short gathered sleeves. Her tiered illusion veil was held in place by a coronet of iridescent sequins and pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink Sweetheart roses.

Attending the bride were Miss Marie Rose Ulliac, sister of the bride, Miss Celine Parent, sister of the groom, Miss Marie Anne Ulliac, cousin of the bride, and Miss Rita Parent, sister of the groom. They wore identical dresses of white nylon chiffon with mint green cummerbund tied in a big bow at the back, complemented with matching headpieces and bouquets.

Attending the groom were Mr. Lionel Aubee, brother of the groom, Mr. Lucien Ulliac, brother of the bride, Mr. Conrad Parent, brother of the groom, and Mr. Alcide Ulliac, cousin of the bride, identically dresed in charcoal black suits, white shirts and mint green ties.

Organist was Mrs. Albert Gaudet, aunt of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Louis Ulliac chose a mauve party dress with white accessories. Mrs. Parent, mother of the groom, wore a deep mauve sheath dress with pink accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Plamondon Community Hall where some 165 guests gathered for supper. Master-of-ceremonies was Mr. L. Badry. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Fr. Pelletier and responded to by the groom. Short addresses were given and congratulations offered.

A dance was enjoyed by the many relatives and friends.

For travelling the bride chose a beige sheath two-piece dress with pearl jewellry and a red rose corsage.

Following a honeymoon trip to various parts of British Columbia and central Alberta Mr. and Mrs. Dorien Aubee will reside in Wandering River where Mr. Aubee wil continue his work.

Among out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: Mr. Jean Marie Ulliac of Chilliwack, B.C.; Mr. Bill Duigou, Westminster, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Villecourt, Mr. and Mrs. Lanzon, Mr. and Mrs. Verrier, all of LaCoury, St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Laurent Ulliac, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Ulliac, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Vincent and Celine Parent and Miss Marie Rose Ulliac, all of Edmonton.

Many friends from Gourin, Lac la Biche, Breynat and Wandering River were present.

Prowse Has Words Of Praise For Former MP Joe Dechene

Harper Prowse, representing the National Federal Liberal Association, had words of praise for Joe Dechene, who previously represented the Athabasca riding. In his address to the Lac la Biche convention, he said he was leader of the Alberta Liberals during the period Mr. Dechene was at Ottawa.

Then he asked the convention to approve a motion expressing deep appreciation of the loyal service of Joe Dechene.

Prowse said he didn't feel elated after the 1948 election when he and Hugh John McDonald from Calgary were elected. However, words of encouragement were forthcoming from Mr. Dechene who said: "No honest effort is ever wasted."

As we built up the Liberal party and faced disappointments, those words encouraged me, he said. We should take this as our watchword, he added.

"Sure it should not matter if a man wins or loses, "Mr. Prowse told the audience. "What counts is that he fight for that which is worthwhile. If we can show Canada we will provide a better government, we will have victory.

"The period we had out of office gave us a chance to look to the future," Prowse continued, "whereas before we were so busy with our duties of office that we didn't have time to look very far ahead."

Then turning his thoughts to the national leader of the Liberal party, Hon. Lester B. Pearson, he said that proof positive of the esteem in which Mr. Pearson was held by the world is found in the thinking that he could handle the job of secretary of the United Nations,

Khrushchev doesn't want him, Prowse smiled. He wants somebody who can't do the job well . . . he wants a "troika". He may take one man—Diefenbaker. If he runs the U.N. like he runs Canada, Prowse joked, he would be better than three men. We can spare him, too."

Welfare Matters Discussed At Lac La Biche Council Meeting

LAC LA BICHE — C. E. Bracken and Frank Lockwood from the Lac la Biche regional welfare office were present at the September 26 meeting of town council to discuss welfare matters in general with the council, following an invitation by that group.

Mr. Bracken outlined some of the policies of his department in dealing with welfare cases, pointing out the difficulty of fixing rigid schedules as to public assistance allowances. He said that each application must be dealt with on the basis of actual need. He also stressed the importance of giving guidance to needy persons with the object of helping them to re-establish themselves as independent citizens able to carry on without assistance.

Mrs. A. Mastaler and Paul Bouvier were present to inform the council that the Skating Rink Committee had agreed to the town's proposal to move the skating rink to the area of the ball park. Plans are to be proceeded with to build a rink at this location, which will be taken down in the spring and reassembled each fall as the skating season approaches. Dressing and waiting rooms will be built so as to be convertible to the needs of the summer sports activities and concession booths. These buildings will be of a permanent nature.

A list of fire fighting equipment, as presented by the secretary of the fire brigade, was authorized for purchase.

The secretary was instructed to call for tenders for trenching and backfilling for water and sewer extensions which are to be undertaken shortly.

F. Creighton was appointed temporary welfare officer for the town.

General accounts totalling $8,888.17 were passed for payment and gas system accounts amounting to $3,750 wer authorized.

Frankly, the scientists are getting ahead of the popular imagination.

IN LAC LA BICHE SPEECH:

Pearson Talks Election, Defence, Jobs, Markets

By Ken Larson
(Managing Editor)

Liberal Leader Lester B. Pearson isn't looking for a November general federal election. He told 700 persons attending the Athabasca Federal Liberal nominating convention at Lac la Biche that it may be in April or October of next year—but for certain within 12 months time.

For the Liberals to win an election, the party must have good candidates and an equally good policy.

Diefenbaker has told us that the election issue will be free enterprise versus socialism, said Pearson. This is a phoney issue. No party stands on this platform. The PCs have done more to interfere with free enterprise than any other party. As for socialism, the New Democratic Party say they're liberals. All parties are liberal minded now which is a real tribute to the Liberal party.

Pearson said the real issue is the Tory record over the past four years. They won't fool the people in 1962.

LESTER B. PEARSON

THE PC RECORD

"Let's look at their record":

The tightest money and highest interest rate in history; the largest deficit (soon to be $3 billion); biggest expenditure in our history and greatest unemployment.

Last year, according to Pearson, was supposed to be the PCs biggest year of progress. And yet under the PCs there was seven per cent unemployment higher than any western industrial country. In fact, it reached 11.5 per cent at one stage.

"We aren't taking political advantage because seven percent were out of work, but because the PCs are doing nothing about it," he said.

"We have faith in Canada but no faith in the government ruling us," Pearson continued. "The reason is clear. Our economy has slowed down under the PCs. During the last four years the Liberals governed, our gross product increased six percent per year. but it has come down one percent in the past four years under PC.

LOWER BARRIERS

"We've got to lower our barriers to trade," said Pearson, "and then the people will go back to work as development comes."

"If countries like New Zealand can have full employment, we can have it too. The NDP say they will pass an employment act and give tickets to the unemployed for which they will get a government job. When the resolution came up at their convention this year, an older CCF member said their would be a lineup from Ottawa to the Atlantic seaboard."

Victory will come to the Liberals, observed the national leader, if the party has a platform of sound finance, progressive reform, freer trade . . . and full employment, meaning not over two or three percent jobless. This will be "our responsibility in Ottawa when we are elected."

"We'll appeal also on a policy of reform and improvement, social security and a national health scheme. If we had full employment (not above three percent) in the last four years (and the same tax levels) we would have had $450 million a year to cover a health plan without additional taxation,"

COMMON MARKET

Pearson had a few words to say about the common market in Europe which Britain recently joined. He said he did not believe Canada's voice is being heard in the world with the strength and respect it used to be, and added "I want to see our reputation held higher in the councils of the world so we can stand upright. Our management of the Coyne affair has lowered our reputation. And our criticism of Britain for joining the common market has hurt us . . . especially since Britain offered us free trade four years ago and we turned it down.

The Progressive Conservative defence policies came under fire by Liberal leader Pearson. He said that two and one half years ago the Prime Minister and government decided to purchase equipment for defence which can't be effective without nuclear warheads. They don't know yet, he added, if they are going to acquire warheads or not.

ALWAYS CAMPAIGNING

Either they are spending the taxpayers money foolishly or the government made up its mind and didn't tell us about it, Pearson affirmed. The trouble with the PC government is its campaigning instead of governing.

Pearson next had something to say on the subject of the North Atlantic Treaty organization. He said "we believe in it, in collective security, and our obligations, but . . . we don't believe Canada should become a member of the nuclear club. One mistake might launch us into a nuclear war. A few nuclear weapons won't save us. We should lead the fight against nuclear warfare at the United Nations. We can do this better by not having these weapons. Let's spend these millions on better things."

The Prime Minister said in a recent broadcast that "you can trust me." Pearson referred to this remark by saying " if we are to trust him then we have the right to know what the government policy is on defence." He assured the audience that the Liberals wouldn't keep them in the dark when they are in office in Ottawa.

Few individuals dispute those who assert that they have unusual talent.

You cannot expect success if it depends upon the failure of others.

Jesus Is With You

By Jacqueline Diesel, age 11 years

Jesus is with you
Wherever you go,
On a bike that you ride
Or a boat that you row.

Jesus is with you,
I know it is true,
It says in the Bible
"I will be with you."

He is with the great workers
All over the earth,
He is with everybody
To their death from their birth.
He is waiting for them
To come close to him
But how can they know
If our lights burn dim?

We know that He is with us
So our light can shine bright
To tell everybody
It is Satan we fight.

Hockey Rink Authorized By Lac la Biche Council

LAC LA BICHE— Paul Bouvier president of the Skating rink committee occupied the chair at the meeting held Sept. 25 at which important decisions were made. Representatives were present from the school board, town council and various organizations in the town as well as one or two interested individuals.

Since the present skating rink is too small and in dire need of repair and improvements, the situation was thoroughly discussed and numerous views aired.

The Skating Rink Committee was of the opinion that it was time the younger children had a place to skate while the older ones practiced hockey; the heating arrangements were not adequate and bathroom facilities were essential. The present site at the skating rink cannot be enlarged to include a rink for the smaller children, due to the fact that gas lines now run over property adjacent to the present rink and it is forbidden to build over gas lines.

To build a smaller rink on a site entirely apart from the hockey rink would necessitate the hiring of a second caretaker and funds would not permit this. As it is, the cost of maintaining the present rink is around $1000 a year,, only a third of which is obtained from the sale of skating tickets, so the rest has to be raised by donations from the various organizations, the annual bingo and the odd individual gift.

Since a portion of the Recreational Grant was assigned for a skating rink to be built on town property, to qualify for the grant and must be used before the end of the year, it was decided at the meeting to approach the town council for a standard-size hockey rink and a 50 foot extension for skating, to be built on the sports ground. The walls of the rink would be collapsible to facilitate removal in the summer. Two dressing rooms, one for girls and one for boys, including bathroom facilities and a central waiting room with large windows overlooking the ice, would be included, all to be heated with gas.

This request, later presented to the town council, was granted.

The skating rink will thus be close to the Curling Rink and though the younger children will have ample time to skate after school and in the early evening, the older children can enjoy skating and hockey practice while their parents curl nearby.

The election of officers for the Skating Rink Committee took place the same evening. Paul Bouvier was returned by acclamation as president, as was also Mrs. A. Mastaler for secretary-Treasurer. E. K. Makowichuk was elected vice-president.

The Skating Rink Committee urges all parents to take a keener interest in their children's activities and to stand behind those of the Skating Rink Committee and other organisations who give so freely of their time to provide fun and recreation for the children and young people of the town.

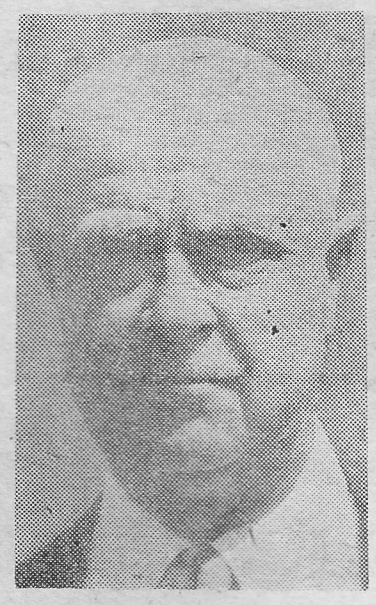
Evil Ideals and Objectives of Communism

By H. E. Carran

That Australian born student-opponent of Communism, Dr. Charles F. Schwarz, giving evidence under oath before the United States House of Representatives Committee on Un-American Activities on May 29th, 1957, briefly but completely described the nature of Communism in these words: "The ideology of Communism is 'Applied Godless Materialism'. Its peculiar and strong appeal to the student mind lies in its offer to the student that, by association with the Communist Party the student can (1) participate in the consequent of the world and (2) following that conquest, can participate in a program to change human nature." Asked to explain further Dr. Schwarz answered "Ask a Communist how he is going to change human nature and he will reply 'We are scientists'. Science has changed the material world. We can use science to change human nature itself."



H. E. CARRAN

He then explained three basic laws of Communism. (1) there is no God. (2) Man is a material machine and (3) Economic Determinism. The first two laws need no explanation but the third law the Doctor explained as meaning that, in the Communist view, what we think, feel, believe, love and worship are nothing more than the expressions of the environment in which we grow up. The Comunist believes that if you are going to change the world it is foolish to think you can do it while the Capitalist environment exists. Therefore you must first conquer the world, then you must destroy the Capitalist environment and replace it by Socialism. Since the root, (Capitalism), is evil, the fruit, (the invidual) is also evil and it is the duty of the Communist to destroy both root AND FRUIT. This justifies the extermination of all who, due to early environment and upbringing, canot accept the Communist "way of life".

After Stalin's death, Krushchev induced many in the west to believe that he, Krushchev, as Stalin's successor, would change Communist policies when, in a speech to Communist party leaders, he stated that Stalin was a mass-murderer and this was reported in our press as oreshadowing that Krushchev intended to bring about a major change in Communist morality. But the Doctor went on to say "We paid no attention to Krushchev's climax. He showed Stalin as a multiple-murderer. He showed him as sadistically insane. He showed him as personnally dictating the torture of his own friends." Then Dr. Schwarz quoted these words from the conclusion of Krushchev's speech "Mind you, don't misunderstand. Stalin was a good man. He did these things as a Marxist-Leninist. He did them in the interest of the working class."

And Dr. Schwarz went on "The tragedy of Communism is not simply that it murders, but that it transforms murder into a moral and righteous act."

This is the monstrous thing now confronting us in the world and with which we must deal. There is no escape. Either we conquor it or we will be conquored by it. It s an ideological war. Many firmly believe it is the final struggle between Good and Evil. If Evil wins, the good will be ruthlessly exterminated. If Good wins, the evil will be given every chance to repent. We are all front line troops. There are no civilians and no neutrals. All must choose which side to take.

Contrast these evil ideals of Communism with the ideals of our Commonwealth. For all decetn-minded people there can be but one choice.

"Search For Talent" Season Opens

NORTHERN ALBERTA directors of schools of nursing got together in Edmonton last week. They included (l-r) Sister Madeleine, Vegreville; Sister Mary, Barrhead; Miss Glenna Roswell, director of the CNA's improvement plan, Ottawa; Dr. T. C. Michie, Ponoka, and Miss Anne Young, Lamont.

Nursing School Improvement Plans Discussed At Meeting

Directors of northern Alberta schools of nursing attended a two-day conference in Edmonton recently to discuss a nursing school improvement plan being sponsored by the Canadian Nurses' Association.

The program, designed to assist nursing schools to up-grade their curriculum or course of study, was one of the recommendations of a pilot project for the evaluation of schools of nursing which was completed in 1960. Alberta hospitals took part in the nation-wide study.

Regional conferences are being conducted to interpret the improvement plan to hospital and health officials, and to assist instructors in the use of a self-evaluation guide developed by the CNA. The guide is designed particularly to help schools identify areas in which improvement is desirable and practical.

Among those attending were: Sister Madeleine, School of Nursing Director, Vegreville; Sister Mary, president, Associated Hospitals, Barrhead; Miss Glenna Rowsell, director of the CNA's improvement plan, Ottawa; Dr. T. C. Michie, Medical Superintendent, Ponoka Mental Hospital, and Miss Anne Young, director of the nursing school, Archer Memorial Hospital, Lamont.

Town Cop's Advice Sent Youth To Jail

A conviction against Larry Ivan Dyck of Cold Lake for breaking, entering and theft was quashed after the Alberta Appeal Court was told that the magistrate who sentenced him admitted there was no evidence of guilt.

W. J. Shortreed, agent for the crown, said the conviction by Magistrate A. J. Ayres in Grand Centre was "totally wrong."

Dyck was charged with breaking into a room in Grand Centre April 22 and stealing 11 bottles of beer and Magistrate Ayres sentenced him to one year's imprisonment, recommending it be served in the Bowden Institute.

The appeal court was told Dyck changed his plea from not guilty to guilty after several interviews with the town constable.

Dyck was told he would be sent to Bowden no matter what his plea.

Magistrate Ayres said: "The facts presented to the court did not indicate guilty," but said he accepted the guilty plea and passed sentence after discussing the charge with the constable who said Dyck should be sent to Bowden because it would make a man of him.

Myrnam Elks Lodge Undertakes Sponsorship Of October 28 Show

The Myrnam Elks Lodge has undertaken sponsorship of the Search for Talent show scheduled for the Myrnam school auditorium for Saturday, Oct. 28, Nestor Chanasyk announced recently.

Mr. Chanasyk stated that the show has a special significance for residents of Myrnam and district because a home-town young lady was declared 1960-61 Search for Talent campion last spring. Miss Patricia Lynkowsky, concert pianist, won all the awards available at the Search for Talent finals held in Leduc last April, then went on to win the open piano class at the Alberta Musical Festival.

Though Miss Lynkowsky is not eligible to compete again, it is hoped that she will appear at the Myrnam show as a guest soloist. Arrangements to this effect are being completed.

Mr. Chanasyk stated that the Myrnam Elks welcome the opportunity to sponsor Search for Talent in this area. First, he said, proceeds from the show go to the ACT Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund. Secondly, Miss Lynkowsky is living proof of the value of these shows in encouraging and discovering local talent, Mr. Chanasyk stated.

Under arrangements completed with the Associated Canadian Travellers, the Myrnam Elks have an opportunity to gain financially as well, through conducting the advance sale of watch award tickets and by receiving a donation of $25 from Molson's of Edmonton for their part in the project.

Contestants are urged to register early with Mr. Chanasyk at Myrnam Hardware, who explains that the first 20 entries will perform and those registering late will either be placed on a nearby show or will get priority listing for next year's show.

The Liberals Sang This Rousing Song

(To The Tune of You Are My Sunshine)

You are my party
The Liberal party
That brings true life to all mankind
Oh! Let us rally
Behind our party
And show the world what we have in mind.

You are the only
Hope of the country
You are the leader of our party
And we will rally
So vigorously
That we will chase those "pro-cons" away.

C'est l'ami Lester

Il se de'voure pour le Canada
Et il espe're,
C'est notr' affaire

We will be happy
When John in fury
Throws up his fours, in mad agony,
And calls out rudely
To all this Country:
"Go to the polls and vote (out) Johnny"

Great Night For The Liberals

Largest Nominating Meeting In Athabasca Riding Since 1930

It was a great night for Liberals visiting Lac la Biche, Sept. 27. In fact, Liberals couldn't find words descriptive enough to explain how they felt about the most successful nominating convention they have ever had in the federal constituency of Athabasca.

They had two good men as condidates. The winner, Jules Van Brabant, mayor of St. Paul, won the nomination. Richard Hall, former MLA and theatre owner from Athabasca, lost but pledged his loyal support to the winners. It was a great day for Brabant—not only did he win the nomination, but he was also re-elected by acclamation that very day as mayor of St. Paul.

They had the largest crowd—about 700 persons.

They had the largest number of registered delegates—322.

They had their national leader, Hon. Lester B. Pearson, on the platform.

They had among them the only Liberal member in the Alberta legislature Mike Maccagno. It was also a great day for Mike who was re-elected by acclamation as mayor of Lac la Biche—ballot box proof that his tremendous efforts at bringing gas into the town and being the town's biggest booster in the legislature paid off.

And it was a great day for Dr. Leon Trottier, of St. Paul who was named "Chief Workhorse" (president) of the Athabasca Federal Liberal Association. And from Irving Baril's point of view, he was happy to be out of the top executive post, although he will lend his support to the Liberal candidate from his home at Bonnyville.

Others on the association executive include: secretary, John Legasse, St. Paul; vice-president, Emil Belzil, St. Paul; second vice-president, Maurice Biron, Bonnyville; third vice-president, Joe Renault, Westlock.

Mr. Mackie of Athabasca, speaking for the chairman of the nominating committee, Jake Josvanger, said that the executive would like the power to add to the committee as it sees fit and the right to break down the duties of secretary into two jobs, secretary and treasurer.

Retiring president Baril said that "this is the most enthusiastic convention that I have seen since 1930." He urged the meeting go all out in support of the winner.

The only nomination from the floor for the executive went to Maurice Biron of Bonnyville, who had served as secretary. He turned down the nomination, saying with a smile, I've been a workhorse long enough."

Maccagno Acclaimed Mayor At Lac La Biche Meeting

LAC LA BICHE — When nominations for mayor and councillors closed, September 27, Michael Maccagno was acclaimed mayor of Lac la Biche for the next two years, there being only one nomination paper filed.

Five men were nominated to contest the two vacancies on the council, thus making an election necessary. Both I. A. Tkachuk and James Hamar, whose terms expired this year, will again be in the running. Other candidates are: L. J. Badry, M. A. Tarrabain and J. Wolstenholme.

Because of the fact that the library room is now being used as a school classroom, elections will be held in the Memorial Hall this year instead of in the town office building as has been the custom in the past.

Date of the election is set by the town and village act, and must be the third Wednesday following nomination day, which makes the date the 18th of October. The polling place opens at 10 a.m. and closes at 7 p.m.

Date of the first meting of the and will be held on Monday, October new council is also set by statute, 30. Until that date the present council has full authority and is expected to administer town affairs as usual.

Two vacancies occurred on the local school district board, with the expiration of the terms of Jake Klein and Lou Badry. Both men were re-elected to office by acclamation.

EARL HASTINGS, president of the Alberta Liberal Association, accompanied the Hon. Lester B. Pearson on his visit to Edmonton and Lac la Biche. He introduced the national liberal leader at the Athabasca Federal Liberal nominating convention in Lac la Biche.

PEARSON WON'T ROOT FOR REDS

YORKTON, Sask. — National Leader Lester Pearson says he is pulling for the New York Yankees in the world series.

"How could I favor the Reds?" he asked a political meeting." It's not even safe to play left wing anymore.

Cincinnati Reds were to meet Yankees in New York Wednesday to start the series.

RICHARD HALL NOMINATION

Gordon Rennie of Westlock nominated Richard Hall of Athabasca to contest the federal election for Liberals in the Athabasca constituency.

He recalled that at an executive meeting of the Athabasca association, Earl Hastings, president of the Alberta association, stated that the Liberal party is counting on the constituency of Athabasca to return a Liberal member in the next federal election.

"I'm certain," said Mr. Rennie, "that we are going to see this realized and we are going to ensure the success of the man we choose by backing him wholeheartedly. This man must have the ability to lead the party to victory and capably represent us in parliament.

"Consequentiy, I now nominate Richard Hall who was born in Edmonton, taught school for 17 years before coming to Athabasca, is a past MLA (1955-1959), a past president of the Liberal Association of Alberta, and from 1948-1954 was mayor of the town of Athabasca.

"Dick was also a great admirer of Joe Dechene who represented this constituency at Ottawa. There is plenty of work to be done," continued Mr. Rennie, "and Dick will devote himself unsparingly to revive the Liberal spirit which dominated this riding under Mr. Dechene."

Mr. Whitely of Athabasca took the platform to second Mr. Rennie's motion. Mr. Whitely shook hands with each of the honored guests and then said, "this helps take up some of the two minutes we're allotted to speak."

Mr. Whitely added that he knew Mr. Hall well and was impressed with his ability. You couldn't get a more devoted man to carry the banner, he affirmed.
